

Job Skills Retail

VMCH

Ready to take your next steps toward paid employment or volunteering?

Join our team and explore your opportunities.

The training programs at our op shops and warehouse aim to give people the job skills for future employment in customer service and retail.

Located in various locations across Victoria, our op shops are learning hubs for people to gain real work experience in a safe and supported setting.

You:

- Are ready to build new job skills toward permanent paid employment or volunteering
- Have NDIS and/or School Leavers funding
- Are a school leaver or person ready for the next steps
- Love working with people and have an interest in retail.

We'll provide:

- One to one support to learn at your pace
- A tailored program so you can reach your goals. You will stay with the program until you are ready to take the next steps toward finding a job or another pathway
- Choice in the program workdays to suit your schedule on Monday to Friday
- Work experience and training with experienced retail professionals and supports to find and transition to employment when you are ready
- Training in skills such as customer service, point of sale transactions, sorting donations and preparing items for sale
- Links to our Employment Pathways program transition support when you are ready to start a job or volunteer role.

Op Shop locations include Balwyn, Ferntree Gully, Heathmont and Wantirna.
